

RECEPTION OF HOLY COMMUNION OUTSIDE OF MASS DURING THESE DAYS:

Dear Parishioners,

The Archbishop has given permission for the reception of Holy Communion outside of Mass, following the enforced Health Guidelines & Directives: At scheduled times (especially after the Live-Streamed Masses) you may drive to the Church, Park your car and proceed to the front of the Church and maintain SOCIAL DISTANCE (do not congregate outside the Church) and then

- you may approach the Front Door of the Church & enter with a mask;
- thereupon, with your own pen, print your name & contact #, & sanitize;
- and approach the Altar's Front Right Bench's 3 red floor markers;
- Say your 'Amen' there;
- remove your mask to receive the Blessed Sacrament at the rail;
- put back on your mask and then immediately exit by the Right (South) Transept doors;
- go back to your car, make your thanksgiving in the car;
- then, exit off the grounds.

May our Reception of our Lord into our very beings, enliven us and strengthen our hope during this grace-filled times preparing for Christmas joy!
